Introduction: -

- Due to the devastating earthquake in Turkey and Syria, the death toll has exceeded 50,000
- Just in Turkey, due to the earthquake that hit the major cities, one million people were left without shelter
- More than 20,000 buildings were completely destroyed.
- More than 100,000 buildings are no longer suitable for life and must be demolished.
- 56,000 people have lost their lives in the quake.
- A large number of citizens are still under the collapsed buildings, but no official figures are available to know the exact number of missing people.
- According to UN: More than 5,000,000 Syrian people are left without shelter and more than 350,000 people need a proper place to stay and medical care.

The convoy of aid from Barzani Charity Foundation arrived in Afrin as the first humanitarian organization

On 11 Feb 2023, a convoy of aid entered the Syrian border with 12 trucks consisting of drinking water, medicine, prepared food, clothing and cleaning materials. The aid was delivered by the team of Barzani Charity Foundation.

The happiness of our brothers in Afrin cannot be described in any way! When the convoy of Barzani Charitable Foundation crossed the borders and once again proved that the first goal is to serve humanity regardless of the dangers, the tears of joy and sorrow of the people of Afrin were mixed.

Latest statistics

About 50000 people have been killed and 115000 injured in Turkey.

And above 6800 people have been killed and more than 20000 injured in Syria, the situation is very difficult due to the cold weather at both Turkey and Syria.

Those figures are expected to change, especially as 24-hour searches for
